

Catholic Schools Week January 29th – February 3rd, 2012

Saturday, January 28th:

Mass at 5:00 P.M. followed by “Family Movie Night” Join us to celebrate the Eucharist as a school family united in faith and then kick back for pizza and a movie as we mark the beginning of Catholic Schools Week.

Monday, January 30th:

“Book Worm Day” – Quiet Reading Time – Wear your SAS PJ Bottoms. Bring your book, blanket, pillow, and “SASSY” the bear or favorite stuffed animal to school to settle down and read with.

“Good Neighbor Day” Thank local businesses that help make SAS what it is.

“Special” Volleyball Game at 2:15 P.M

“Change for the Future” each day children will donate a different denomination of coins. By the end of week we will total the amount and donate the funds to Food for the Poor. Our goal is to feed 200 children for a month.

“Special Thank You to our Bus Drivers”

Tuesday, January 31st:

“We are unique as snowflakes” Classes will buddy up and make snowflakes to decorate each class’s doorway.

Wednesday, February 1st:

“Open House” 9:30 – 11:30 A.M. and 7:00 – 8:00 P.M.

“Valentines for Vets Day” – Each class will make individual cards for our Veterans in local Vet Hospitals during the morning.

Thursday, February 2nd:
